

Directions to St Anselm's School, Bakewell: Spot the Difference SU Holiday

From the North and North West: From Buxton take the A6 south towards Bakewell and Matlock. On entering Bakewell stay on the A6 until the road tends left to a large roundabout with The Rutland Arms Hotel on the right. Immediately before this roundabout, turn right into North Church Street and follow the hill upwards for a third of a mile till you find S. Anselm's on the right.

From the North East, South and South East: Leave the M1 at junction 29 and follow the signs for Chatsworth along the A617 through Chesterfield. The road becomes the A619. Just beyond Baslow turn right towards Bakewell. On entering the town over a bridge the A619 comes to a large roundabout with The Rutland Arms Hotel directly opposite. Take the second exit (for A6 to Buxton) but immediately turn left up the hill into North Church Street, where the school can be found a third of a mile up the hill on the right.

From the South West: From Derby follow the A6 through Matlock to Bakewell. At the large roundabout with the Rutland Arms Hotel on the left, follow the road round to the left (A6 to Buxton) but immediately turn left into North Church Street where the school can be found a third of a mile up the hill on the right.
